RULES AND REGULATIONS

1. Admission Eligibility: All applicants must meet the minimum age and educational qualification requirements as specified for each skill training program. Admission is subject to the availability of seats and selection criteria set by the Skill India Mission.
2. Code of Conduct: Students must adhere to the rules and regulations set forth by the Skill India Mission and maintain a respectful and disciplined environment. Any form of discrimination, harassment, or disruptive behavior towards fellow students, faculty, or staff will not be tolerated. Students are expected to attend classes regularly and punctually, actively participate in training sessions, and complete assignments within the given deadlines.
3. Facilities and Resources: Students are responsible for the proper use and maintenance of all facilities, equipment, and resources provided by the SIM. Any damage caused to the SIM's property due to negligence or intentional misconduct may result in financial penalties or disciplinary action.
4. Dress Code: a. All students must follow the dress code prescribed by the SIM, which may include wearing uniforms or specific attire during training sessions. Students are expected to maintain personal hygiene and cleanliness.
5. Academic Integrity: Plagiarism, cheating, or any form of academic dishonesty is strictly prohibited. Students must submit their own original work and properly credit all sources used in their assignments or projects. Misconduct related to examinations or assessments may lead to severe penalties, including expulsion from the program.
6. Attendance and Progress: Regular attendance is mandatory. Students must maintain the minimum attendance percentage specified by the SIM to be eligible for assessments and certification. Students who fail to meet the required academic standards or show insufficient progress may be subject to counseling, academic probation, or termination from the program.
7. Safety and Security: Students must adhere to safety guidelines and instructions provided by the SDC to ensure their well-being and the safety of others. Any unauthorized use or possession of dangerous objects, substances, or weapons within the premises is strictly prohibited and may result in legal action.
8. Disciplinary Actions: Violations of the rules and regulations may lead to disciplinary action, including warnings, suspension, expulsion, or legal consequences, depending on the severity of the offense. The decision of the SIM management regarding disciplinary matters is final and binding.

By enrolling in the Skill India Mission, students acknowledge and agree to abide by the above rules and regulations. Failure to comply may result in the termination of enrollment.
